Increased closures in Chena River State Recreation Area due to fire

(Fairbanks, AK) – A new fire near Mile 50 of the Chena Hot Springs Road has caused Alaska State Parks to expand the current trail and cabin closures in the Chena River State Recreation Area. The North Fork Public Use Cabin and the Angel Rocks Trail will be closed until the danger from fire diminishes. On Tuesday, Alaska State Parks restricted use on all trails and cabins north of the road. These closures are also still in effect.
